Tū Pono

Te Mana Kaha o te Whānau

Kaupapa

Building on the strategy launch at Rehua Marae in 2017, Tū Pono: Te Mana Kaha o te Whānau is about embedding a stronger local response. Ko tenei te wā! This is the time to take stock, to be bold and determined to support local actions, local whānau, approaches and initiatives.

Waikawa marae is hosting a Tū Pono Hui on Wednesday 26 September in response to the call of over seven hundred whānau across Te Waipounamu to stop the silence, speak up and act locally for violence free whānau.

3.30pm	Powhiri
4.15pm	Call to action i. Tā Mark Solomon
5.00pm	Me Tiro Whānui Kia Tū Pono
6.00pm	Nāu Te Rourou, Nāku Te Rourou Ka Ora Ai Te Iwi
7.00pm	Hon. Dame Tariana Turia
7.30pm	Karakia Whakamutunga

Kōrero Whaitake

- a) Facilitator's role is unlocking whānau potential, explore possible local action and solutions.
- b) Tū Pono Hui themes from twelve consultation hui June 2016 - June 2017 will be presented.
- c) Create strategies and solutions to addressing some of the more confronting issues such as:
  - supporting whānau to heal and restore
  - supporting whānau to say no – reclaiming our homes and marae as violence free
  - supporting whānau in unsafe situations to reconnect with safe, nurturing whānau
  - supporting whānau to champion the safety of all
  - supporting violence free marae
- d) Kōrero will be shared back to hui.
