

A photograph of two women in a meeting. The woman on the left has blonde hair and is wearing a dark top with a necklace. The woman on the right has short brown hair, wears glasses, and a dark top with a teal lanyard. They are both looking towards the right side of the frame.

Reduced fees on Level 5 and 6 Leadership and Management qualifications

Careerforce wishes to recognise the importance of good leadership and management in the health and wellbeing sectors. Leaders and managers are the key drivers of transformation and change so we're offering the opportunity to take advantage of a discounted full-service delivery package at the reduced fee of $350 incl GST (for a limited number of places).

New Zealand Diploma in Business (Level 5) Leadership and Management

About the programme

This leadership and management programme has been created for current leaders and managers in operational roles with direct reports.

Graduates of this qualification will be able to:

- Analyse the operational impact of internal and external environments on a business entity.
- Apply broad knowledge of the principles and current practices of operations, accounting, marketing/sales, human resources, and risk management, to support the performance of a business entity.
- Contribute operationally to innovation and organisational change in a business entity.
- Develop and maintain operational business relationships with stakeholders to support the performance of a business entity.
- Apply knowledge of the origin of te Tiriti o Waitangi to analyse how the resulting bi-cultural partnership can be applied to operational business activities and relationships.

New Zealand Diploma in Business (Level 6) Leadership and Management

About the programme

This leadership and management programme is for leaders and managers with direct reports and strategic management responsibilities.

Graduates of this qualification will be able to:

- Contribute to a business entity's strategic objectives and strategic plan.
- Apply broad knowledge of the principles and practices of operations, management accounting, marketing/sales, human resources, and risk management, to support strategic objectives of a business entity.
- Contribute strategically to innovation and organisational change in a business entity.
- Develop and maintain strategic business relationships with stakeholders to support the performance of a business entity.
- Apply knowledge of the origin of te Tiriti o Waitangi to analyse how the resulting bi-cultural partnership can be applied to strategic business activities and relationships.

Continued on next page ...

Learning and assessment resources

Online learning and assessments are done through Aka Toi, the Careerforce online learning platform. This is where the assessments are located. There are also links to suggested learning resources to support the learner's journey.

The assessment of this programme includes the learner responding to assessment tasks, gathering suitable workplace evidence or examples of work, and Kōrero Matanga (where there are minor gaps in the written work and/or the workplace evidence presented).

Kōrero Matanga is a structured professional conversation between the learner and assessor. It enables the learner to demonstrate their knowledge and skills through story-telling and sharing experiences. Kōrero Matanga can be either face-to-face, by phone or Skype.

Cost and duration

$350 incl GST (covers access to resources, assessment fees, and diploma). The normal fee is $2,000. The duration of both these programmes is 18 – 24 months.

Find out more

Contact your Careerforce Workplace Advisor for more information, or visit our website www.careerforce.org.nz and complete the Expression of Interest form.

This offer expires 31 December 2019.

Enquire now.

There are a limited number of places on these programmes at the reduced fee.

Freephone: 0800 277 486
Email: info@careerforce.org.nz careerforce.org.nz

Careerforce
te toi pūkenga