

Marlborough Museum Steampunk Inspiration Competition Categories

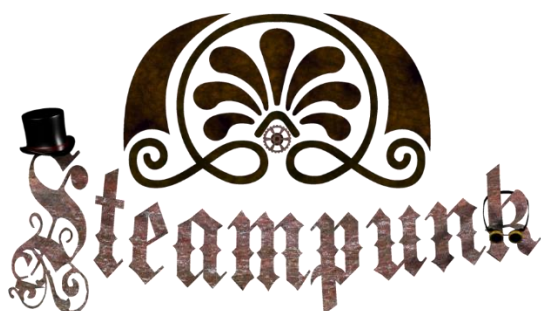

Calling all Steampunkers! Marlborough Museum is moving forward into the past with a ground-breaking exhibition scheduled to start on 6 February. We are calling on the community to help us in our quest.

We would like to display three aspects of Steampunk life. We are asking for the Marlborough community to forward photographs of potential exhibits. There are three categories. The winners will be displayed in our glorious exhibition at Marlborough Museum in Brayshaw Heritage Park.

Category 1: Best Steampunk Outfit. This needs to be made by someone who currently resides in Marlborough. There are no boundaries and we will be awarding prizes in three categories: under 12, 12-18 years and over 18 years. The creators need to ensure that the outfits are available for exhibition from 6 February, 2019, we are also keen to have permission to use your photographs for publicity.

Category 2: Best Steampunk Model. They need to be able to fit into a cube display case; 28 x 28 x 28 centimetres. There are no boundaries and we will be awarding prizes in three categories: under 12, 12-18 years and over 18 years. The creators need to ensure that the models are available for exhibition from 6 February, 2019, we are also keen to have permission to use your photographs for publicity.

Category 3: Best Steampunk Portrait Photograph. We want to see you in all your Steampunk glory. There are no boundaries and we will be awarding prizes in three categories: under 12, 12-18 years and over 18 years. The creators need to ensure that they are submitted via a digital file at least 1mg and for agreed display from 6 February, 2019, we are also keen to have permission to use your photographs for publicity.
